Dear B.
It has just struck me that I have never answered your card. Please excuse me, and accept my best thanks for your kind wishes. How are you getting on? The nights are getting fine, the weather cheerful, and the summer is coming on. It is pretty well holidays time to me now, so I look forward to an easy time with plenty of rest.
With kindest regards from
Yours sincerely
H. C. Fry.

Dear Ernest

I think this one is the best of these Series I like the Series you are sending me very much also the one where the man is rather dry there might have been beer in that mug for all we know

Dear Ernie you can write to me as usual on Sunday as you know I like something to eat in bed Mabel say she think she ought to have it as I am coming to see you I shall have to give her a piece as I want her to come and meet me. the send her love to you

Hoping to have some in reality on Sunday

With much Love
Sincerely Yours
Elfie
